11 Lisa M. Aubuchon, ) FILE SURREPLY
12 State Bar #103141 )

14 )
15 )

16 Appellant Lisa Aubuchon files her Response to the Motion, understanding
17 that the Order has been signed allowing the Surreply before any response was 18 permitted. Appellant believes she should have the right to reply to the Surreply
19 given the incorrect statements in the Motion therefore requests leave to do so.

21
22 Bar counsel has claimed that the information about Judge O'Neil's bias is 23 "factually impossible." It clearly is factually possible given that the Court Tower
24 ruling by Gary Donahoe was made in early 2009. The affidavit makes it clear that 25 he was commenting on public criticism about Gary Donahoe which was done after 26 the ruling on the Court Tower.
27

1 Appellant should be able to respond to these allegations as typically is
2 allowed in a Reply. Bar counsel also claims that other matters are irrelevant
3 however, as Appellant's entire livelihood as well as her clients' interests are at 4 stake, any information about the violations of her rights in the proceedings are
5 clearly relevant to a stay question.
